

Sentencing: a case for change?

Public Sentencing Forum

Wednesday 7 December 2011

5 - 7 pm

State Library

Village Roadshow Theatrette

Be part of the debate

Moderator

Hon Justice Lex Lasry

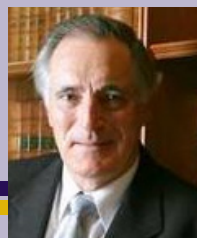

Speakers

Hon Justice
Chris Maxwell
President of the Court of Appeal

Alan Howe
Herald Sun
newspaper

Hon Frank Vincent
AO QC
Victoria University
Formerly Court of Appeal

Prof Arie Freiberg AM
Monash University
Chair of the Sentencing
Advisory Council

- The State Government has conducted a public survey (via the Herald Sun) on community attitudes to criminal sentencing.
- The Government has recently flagged the possibility of introducing baseline sentences for 'serious' and 'significant' offences, and juvenile sentencing reforms intended to "toughen" criminal penalties.

Our speakers, representing a range of view points, will present on these issues and then participate in a Q&A-style discussion, taking questions from the moderator and the audience.

The International Commission of Jurists Victoria

www.icj.org www.icj-aust.org.au www.vic.icj-aust.org.au

When

Wednesday
7 December 2011
5-7 pm

Where

State Library Village
Roadshow Theatrette
LaTrobe St

No charge but please RSVP by

5 December 2011

RSVP to

icj-vic@vicbar.com.au or T 9603 7036
F 9670 7086